JAP INVASION FLEET IS BLASTED

MACARTHUR TAKES OVER

General Douglas MacArthur has arrived in Australia to become supreme commander of the armies of the United Nations, it was announced in Washington today.

It was revealed that President Roosevelt had ordered General MacArthur to leave the Philippines on February 22, but the General, reluctant to leave his command, asked for further time and was given additional opportunity to hand over his command to Major General Wainright.

Gen. MacArthur, his wife and son, arrived in Australia in a secret flight from the peninsula of Batan where the famous General has written a brilliant chapter on the annals of warfare.

The arrival of General MacArthur in Australia came at a moment when thousands of American soldiers, including heavy air reinforcements had reached the far east will be fought.

Student Injured in Park Wreck; Jugular Vein is Severed

Ruel McElwrath, 8th grade student and son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer McElwrath, narrowly escaped death Tuesday night in Wilson-Ledbetter Park when his car struck a tree and he was thrown into the glass. A jugular vein was severed.

With him at the time was Pete Laywell. They were returning to the city for some additional dishes for a picnic when the accident occured. A number of students in McElwrath's class had gone to the park for the picnic.

The car struck a tree along the winding road in the park. Not far away at the Legion Hut members of the Post were celebrating the anniversary of the Legion and among the Legionaires were Dr. Reed and Homer McElwrath, father of the injured boy.

After the accident young McElwrath attempted to make his way to a bicycle owned by Bob Kirk, a member of the class, but fainted before he reached the wheel which was standing nearby. He was picked up by his companions and placed on the wheel and taken to the Legion Hut where Dr. Reed saved the life of the boy by stanching the flow of blood. He was taken to Cameron Hospital by Dr. Reed and Mr. McElwrath.

Young McElwrath was on the operating table for about two hours where surgeons worked to save his life and indications Wednesday afternoon were that he will recover because his condition is reported improved.

U. S. FLIERS TAKE BIG TOLL OFF THE AUTRALIAN COAST

American, British and Australian aviators this morning blasted a Japanese invasion fleet east of New Guinea and were said in a Washington war communication to have destroyed 23 Japanese ships, 18 of them being warships and auxiliary craft.

The Japanese ships were approaching the mainland of Australia and this is the first attempt made to invade the continent.

Details were not announced immediaetly, but the communication made plain that the invasion had been blasted and no landings were made by the Japanese.

The Americans lost one plane and in addition to blasting the fleet the Japs also lost 3 planes shot down into the sea.

There were 5 transports loaded with troops. There were 18 warships and auxiliary ships including cruisers and destroyers.

The allied air men roared out from the continent of Australia within a few hours after General MacArthur had reached Australia from the Philippines and delivered one of the most decisive blows of the war. Not all the ships were reported to be sunk but a major number of them were sunk and the remaining ships were set afire or damaged.

No American warships took part in the fight and none of the British or Australian warships were involved.

The entire action was carried out by bomber and fighter planes and is believed to be proof of the statement issued this morning by General MacArthur when he said that large numbers of these planes are reaching Australia and also a steady stream of supplies and men.

If the people do not have opportunity to express their views on the shameful course at Washington by means of a protest, then that mass meeting should be held, or a petition circulated. America is awakening. Nothing has so deeply disappointed us as the President's statement Wednesday regarding the 40 hour week. If you favor a protest urge action locally. We like this Dallas News editorial and give it to you:

WRITE THE PRESIDENT

(An Editorial)

If it chills the blood in your veins to read that the President told one of his press conferences that the time has come for more flag-waving in the war effort and some labor legislation ultimately but not now, sit down and write the President a letter and tell him so.

Amid the rejoicing at MacArthur's elevation to supreme command in the South Pacific, we learn that shipbuilders' profits run as high as 300 per cent on government orders. America wants that stopped—not ultimately, but NOW. Sit down and write the President. Tell him so.

Donald Nelson calls us to double our war production to save the nation, but the President says that overtime and the short week are standard. Sit down and tell the Commander in Chief that they aren't standard in Bataan and that you don't want them standard in America until the war is won.

The President demands that the country awake and that dawdling cease. But the office of Civilian Defense is clutterd up with newly appointed $1-a-year men as Co-ordinators of Badminton, Co-ordinator of Archery, Co-ordinator of Bagpunching, Co-ordinator of Billiards, Co-ordinator of Canoeing, Co-ordinator of Code Ball (Does anybody know what code ball is?), Co-ordinator of Miniature Golf, Co-ordinator of Paddle Ball and Co-ordinator of Weight Lifting. It sounds like Gilbert & Sullivan. Sit down and tell the President that we'll handle badminton, if he will fire all boon-dogglers and handle the war.

Do it respectfully, as befits a citizen-sovereign writing the most distinguished public servant in the land. Offer him all you've got—and demand all he's got—for America. Tell him that any man in Washington who won't get down to winning the war NOW, won't go back next time.

Washington is a long way from where the people live. It is a pity it is such a long, long way from where our boys are figthing and dying in the foxholes of Bataan and in the splinter-strewn waters of the Pacific.—Dallas News.

WILL ENTER ARMY ON MARCH 22 AS PRIVATE

W. A. (Bill) Morrison, Criminal District Attorney, proclaimed in a radio broadcast out of Dallas at noon Tuesday, the "most patriotic man in Texas," has resigned his office and will enter the army as a private at $21 per month on or about March 22.

Governor Coke Stevenson has accepted Mr. Morrison's resignation and will appoint Judge Ed Gunn of Rockdale to the office.

Mr. Morrison, in Class 3A, said the announcement, voluntarily gave up a high place in the government here at a handsome salary to do his bit in the army of Uncle Sam at $21 per month in what is undoubtedly as fine example of patriotism as has come out of this war.

Mr. Morrsion was elected Criminal District Attorney in 1938 and was serving his second term. He had made a fine record as a prosecutor and it was believed he could have succeeded himself without opposition this year.

His resignation was kept a secret and came with complete surprise to his friends and to the people of the county

Judge Ed Gunn who gained the reputation as Texas' marrying Justice at Rockdale, comes to the office well equipped. He has been engaged in the practice of the law in Rockdale for years, and had served as Justice of Peace there for many years.

Mr. Morrision was out of the city Tuesday and could not be contacted.

A telephone call to the office found Mrs. Morrison without knowledge that the announcement had been released but knew of her husband's decision to enter the army. Mr. Morrison is now serving as President of the County and District Attorneys' Association of Texas.

Talks About Parity and Scores Labor

The House has just finished work on the Agricultural Appropriation Bill. This bill has consumed the larger portion of the past two weeks I feel that as passed it was a very fair bill. As reported to the House by the committee the bill carried only about 60 percent of the amount carried by the same bill last year. I agree that very deep cuts must be made in all non-defense expenditures, and I have voted to make such cuts. I think, however, that after the appropriation for so vital an activity as agriculture has been cut 40 percent by the committee, then an additional cut of 50 percent of what is left may be unreasonable. I did not vote for the additional cuts proposed to the Soil Conservation Service budget. On the other hand, I felt that the migratory labor camps, the land utilization projects, etc., of the Farm Security Administration could be cut still further than the figures recommended by the committee, and I so voted. I also voted to cut all travel appropriations in the bill by 50 percent. At the same time, I felt the committee had reduced the money allotted to subsistance loans and for the purchase of homes for tenants as much as it should. I, therefore, voted against further cuts in these items In short, I feel that we must give serious consideration to each item. We cannot adopt some arbitrary rule and cut all appropriations by the same percent as many people, and some Members of Congress, would have us do. Our duty is to save every dollar we can without injuring the necessary functions of government, and at the same time to know why we cut one item more than another.

The most important single item in this bill did not involve a direct appropriation. It was the limitation enforced by the bill on the sale of government owned or controlled farm commodities at less than parity. This was an appropriation bill, and under the rulse of the House no provision could extend any further than to limiting the expenditure of the funds appropriated. It therefore provides that—"none of the funds made available by this paragraph shall be used for administrative expense connected with the sale of government owned or controlled stocks of farm commodities at less than parity—." Certain exceptions were allowed in regard to the sale of damaged grain sold for livestock feed or industrial alcohol, and of cotton for new uses. A very strong effort was made to strike this provision out of the bill. To have done so would have been equivalent to an outright invitation to the Department to sell stocks at a price that would break the market. I have no desire to force farm prices up to any unfair levels, but I do believe that the farmer is entitled to simple parity

Another matter that is often overlooked in regard to this question of parity is the fact that if we allow the farmer to get parity for his crop as this bill proposes, we will save the government many millions of dollars in parity payments that will not be made, but which would be payable of the farmers' prices were not allowed to reach parity in the markets. I am, therefore, very happy to report that all efforts to strike this provision out of the bill failed.

Early in the week work on this bill was suspended to pass a resolution extending the Dies Committee for another year. I believe that the informtion already accumulated by this committee may be of great value during this war, and that the country could ill afford to stop this work just now whether we agree with all of Mr. Dies' actions or not. I therefore voted for the extension of the committee.

Another matter of great importance which received consideration in the House this week was the extension of the limit on the national debt, which was raised from 65 billion to 125 billion dollars. This war costs such tremendous sums that a substantial portion of the cost must be provided by borrowed money. At the same time, I believe, and most of the officials here believe, that we must pay for as much of it as we can with current taxes. This means that next years Federal taxes will be the highest this nation has ever seen. Of course, it seems to most of us that they are now about to that point. (I have just paid my income tax. Congressmen do pay all the taxes that anybody else does, in spite of the belief on the part of some people that we are exempt.)

Washington is going to have another blackout tonight. The co-operation of the people here is still very good, just as I know it is in Texas. In fact, I feel that there are very few groups of Americans today who are not willing to sacrifice their personal conveniences, comfort or profit to help win this war. As for the small groups who still put their personal advantage above the needs of the nation, the sooner we crack down and make them do their part the better.

With best wishes, I am.

MILLION AND A HALF RED STORM THE NAZI

The long expected Russian offensive was under way today with around 1,500,000 Red Troops hurled into battle against the slowly deteriorating German forces.

The Red Star, offiical publication of the Soviet army, said today that the offensive does no longer belong to Germany but will be entirely controlled by the Red Army and there will be no German affensive during the spring campaign.

While this statement is taken for what it is worth the Germans have been badly battered and defeated on the eastern front and the Russians give every evidence of being determined that there will be no let up in fighting.

The snows are beginning to meit on the Russian planes and in the mountains and for some weeks to come the terrain will be bad and mechanized forces will be unable to stage a blitz battle.

Intense naval activity off the Norwegian coast was taken today to indicate that American supply lines to Russia are becoming more effective and the Germans are alarmed over the possibilities.

Under Secretary of War Patterson in a radio broadcast last night said that the American army and navy is now taking the offensive against the enemy and the enemy will find out where the blow will be struck after it is delivered.

If the Secretary means what he says somewhere along the vast front the Americans are either striking or ready to strike. Out of Washington during recent weeks have come a number of similar statements and we do not know whether they should be taken at their full face value or not.

This morning off the coast of Guinea American bombing planes destroyed air dromes owned by the Japanese and shot down 5 enemy planes. All American planes and pilots returned to their base without loss of man or ship.

Brazilian citizens returned to the attack today and the Germans are being severly handled and their department stores wrecked.

The Italians are not being molested

While the Japanese have been temporarily stalled with the loss of a large number of transports loaded with troops they have now reached the position where they can attack the mainland of Australia and the invasion may begin any moment.

THE AMERICAN IDEA

As the world hums with the rising clamor of confusing propaganda, it is important for each of us to understand in all its fullness, the American idea.

For there is an American idea.

It came with the Pilgrim fathers, and the Wiiliam Tells, of many races, who found homes here.

It took as its emblem the freedom of the eagle and the independence of the pioneers.

It over-leapt the hurdles that have blocked human progress in many other lands for centuries.

It blew through the sordid runways of outworn civilization with the sweetness of mountain winds.

It amazed the world with the rich outpourings in its untrammeled spirit.

It made men cry: "Give me liberty or give me death."

It dedicated itself in strength, humility and tolerance, to the care of the needy and sick in this land and in all others.

It brought forth a benficient downpouring of free thought, free speech, a free press, and a free pulpit

It proclaimed the dignity of labor and the rights to the profits of personal effort

It erected the little white church and the little red school house in 250,000 communities

It created a nation of men with free bodies, free minds and free souls.

It brought forth in only 150 years, the greatest wealth and the highest standard of living any people in history has ever known.

This is the American idea—Chicago Gyrator.

The paragrapher's union is going to demand parity, too, as soon as it figures out what it is.

London is demanding a new front. We have already taken steps to reduce our waistline.

Bob Peters, student at Texas University, spent the week end with his father, Robert Peters.

Lawrence Schiller, student at Texas University, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Schiller.

Milam County's Blackout Instructions Poster Sought in Pennsylvania; Is Called Masterpiece By FBI; Written By Emory Camp

A recent poster distributed by Milam county Home Defense Council has found its way to Pennsyvlvania and the office of Sheriff has received two letters requesting copies of this poster.

One of the letters comes from C. B. Steger, chief air raid warden for Mercer county in Sharon, Pennsylvania. They want to use the same poster in that county.

Another letter comes from the Regional Director of the State Council of defense in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania requesting a copy of the circular which was issued for blackout instructions in Milam county.

The FBI is conducting schools at this time in Pennsylvania on black outs and defense measures. Quoting from the letter of Mr. Cotton we find the following: "At the F B I School last week it was said that this poster was a masterpiece."

LeRoy Massengale, Deputy Sheriff, has supplied copies of this poster to each of these sources in Pennsylvania.

This poster was written by Emory B. Camp, Chairman of the Milam County Defense Council who supervised its printing and distribution. Mr. Camp has scored again for his community and his country.

VIERECK

For a quarter of a century, George Sylvester Viereck has regularly been saying and writing things in this country that, if said or written in the country he loves so much, would have gotten him into the toils of the law immediately. At long last, he seems headed for prison.

Of course, the fact that Viereck could say and write in this country for twenty-five years what he could not have said or written for twenty-four hours in his own country is the diference between Germany and the United States. We do not want to change this difference. But to those overzealous advocates of civil liberties who will question his conviction, it may be answered that Viereck has not exercised merely his civil rights. Since the days when he used to spew his hatred at 'Tom Wilson" in the columns of the Fatherland (later, subversively, American Monthly), he has outrageously and unfairly exploited the privilege of living in a free country. His conviction under an indictment for having failed to register with the State Department as an agent of German propaganda is thoroughly justifitable on its own merits. But the charge in the American mind is not merely that he was not registered, but that he was in fact what Prosecutor Maloney of the Department of Justice called him, 'the mouthpiece of the murderous, lying rogues in the Wilhelmstrasse."

There is an end to patience even in America. And so Viereck heads for prison. Auf Wiedersehen, and we don't care if it's goodby.—Dallas News.

Knights of Columbus Hold Flag Blessing Ceremony Sunday

On last Sunday in a very impressive ceremony the blessing of the Service flag for members of St. Monica's Catholic Parish who are serving in the armed forces of the United States was held.

A procession formed at the Catholic school by the Knights of Columbus, led by the United States Flag carried by Boy Scouts. A guard of honor composed of ex-service men escorted the flag. Then the service flag, with forty stars on a white field bordered with red and also carried by the Scouts. The forty stars representing thirty six men and four girls in the service. The Knights of Columbus followed with their service flag. The procession halted before the main altar of the church where the pastor, the Rev. George J. Duda, blessed the service flags and made a brief patrotic talk, after which the regular Sunday service was held.

During the Mass the Knights of Columbus and Boy Scout troop 52 received Holy Communion in a body. After which breakfast was served for the Knights and Scouts at the Knights of Columbus hall. After breakfast short talks were made by the Grand Knight Rudolph Richter, who acted as Master of Ceremonies, Rev. Geo. J. Duda, Frank J. Polansky and Mrs. Bill Parma.

Marak 4-H Girls Are Planning Year's Work

On March 15, at the Catholic School of Marak the 4H Club girls met with their sponsor, Mrs. Cyril Zarosky.

The President called the meeting to order, and we said our prayer and pledge. The secretary read the minutes and called the roll.

The Club discussed the unfinished business of the last meeting on what we are going to do in April and what each girl will do as her project. There were some questions as to the social hours of the Club in April.

The Club elected Marie Slavik as reporter.

The meeting adjourned until their next regular business session.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Matter" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 22, 1942.

The Golden Text is: "The fashion of this world passeth away" (I Cor. 7:31.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "My days are like a shadow that declineth; and I am withered like grass. But thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever. and thy rememberance unto all generations" (Psalms 102:11, 12.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "As God Himself is good and is Spirit, goodness and spirituality must be immortal. Their opposites, evil and matter, are mortal error, and has no creator. If goodness and spirituality are real, evil and materiality are unreal and cannot be the outcome of an infinite God, good" (page 277.)

ONE CRUISER OF TEN THOUSAND TONS SUNK

Nine more Japanese ships have been attacked by American airmen and three more have been hit in the continuing battle off New Guinea.

One of these ships is said to have been a 10,000 ton cruiser and was set a fire and believed to have been sunk.

A noon broadcast indicated that at least three of the ships had been sunk and others are believed to have been put out of action by the air attack.

All of the ships are said to have been warships with the exeception of one to two auxiliary vessels.

Then if a third member of this family dies, the beneficiary would receive one-half of the capital amount of $1,000 or $500, but still there is the full one thousand doilars insurance on the remainder of the family. Then, if and when, the surviving member of this family dies there will be paid to the beneficiary the entire capital sum, or $1,000.

MILANO BOY LOSES LIFE IN SEA BATTLE OFF JAVA

Guthrie Fitzhugh Layne, Jr., 20, Seaman First Class, of Milano, lost his life when the United States Cruiser Houston was sunk in a naval battle with the Japanese fleet off Java.

The naval battle began on Feb. 27, and lasted into the morning of Sunday, March 1. The Cruiser Houston attempted with a British Destroyer, to make its way through the straits off Java where it encountered heavy concentration of Japanese warships, but gave battle and was lost. All aboard the cruiser are believed to have lost their lives.

Layne was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie Layne of Milano.

Layne attended school in Cameron in 1937 and 1938. He moved with his family to Milano where they now reside. He joined the navy in July, 1940, and had been with the Asiatic fleet since October 1940

Notice that Layne had lost his life was received in a telegram to Mr. and Mrs. Layne which said "Your son is missing following action in the performance of duty and in the service of his country."

The Houston, often used by President Roosevelt when he cruised in southern waters and thought to have been the ship on which he sailed to meet Winston Churchill in the north Atlantic for the 8 point declaration of allied faith in the war, was one of 12 allied vessels lost in the battle with the Japanese invasion fleet off the coast of Java.

Mr. and Mrs. Layne have another son in the service. He is Thomas Parker Layne and a cadet in the Air Corps at Sheppherd Field.

I stood upon a hill to-day,

It seems they've changed their southern route.
For they were heading East.

I think they're using Berlin
For their future resting ground.
They are the only type of Birds
That fly the letter V.
I know they will end the war.
In a winning victory.

Those bombers are a N. S. breed
That run on rubber legs,
They're built to fly to Berlin
To lay those golden eggs.
When it's over everywhere
And we are blessed with peace
It will be won by hearts of steel
That ride those bombing geese.

Negro Forger Arrested By Deputy Sheriff; Makes A Confession

Horace Lewis, negro, today made a confession that he had forged a number of checks totaling about $100 on various citizens.

He was arrested after he had presented a check at a local bank claiming that "a man in a blue Plymouth" had sent the check down to be cashed.

Officers of course could not locate a man in a blue Plymouth and from this an investigation led to the negro's arrest. Deputy Sheriff LeRoy Massengale said that the negro had been under suspicion for some time.

At the time this goes to press the negro was completing a detailed statement before Criminal District Attorney Bill Morrison in which he is said to have been confessing the thefts.

The negro is employed at a local service station and was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Carl Black.

Milton Winfield is confined to his bed with the measles. Friends hope to see him up soon.

IF SO CONTINENT IS SAFE FROM JAPANESE

Thousands of American troops are now in Australia.

This announcement was made in Washington this morning and confirms a story filed in Honolulu several weeks ago over which a protest was lodged and a leak in military information was alleged when it was reported that large convoys were steaming toward Australia.

These reports have been recurring all along the line of retreat. No one knows whether to belivese them or not. Thousands of soldiers in Australia may mean 2 or 3 thousands because there has never at any point since the war began, been an adequate number of democratic soldiers.

Assistant Secretary of War Patterson on Thursday night said an offensive is under way. It remains to be seen whether or not Secretary Patterson is telling facts or merely trying to placate the rising tide of public anger over the conduct of the war.

On the whole the allies were fighting from China to new Guinea. The Chinese seem to be the only soldiers who can defeat the Japs and have driven them back and inflicted bloody losses in an engagement reported this morning.

The Royal Air forces bombed western Germany and shot down 8 Nazi planes Saturday morning.

American and Australian fliers Saturday morning shot down 10 Japanese planes off the coast of New Guinea.

The Navy Department in Washington announced early Saturday that 13 allied ships had been lost in the Straits of Java while the Japanese lost 8 ships. This battle occured on March 4 and was reported at the time as indicating a decisive naval action. It is the first defeat suffered by the allies.

Henderson Walker Rates Signal Corps In U. S. Army.

G. H. Walker better known to his many friends in Cameron and Milam county as Henderson (Heinie) Walker is now stationed at Camp Crowder, Mo.

His address is Co. C. 30th Bn. S. C. R. T. C. Camp Crowder, Mr. Henderson was assigned to the Signal Corps. A higher intelligence rating is required to get into the Signal Corps than any other branch of the army except the Air corps.

He reports plenty of good eats and good beds to sleep in with one hours drilling each day then six hours going to school. He has been assigned to the air-craft warning school which is very interesting and a very secretive work.

Drop old Heinie a line now and then, he'll enjoy hearing from you.

Bob H. Nabours to Be Married in Canada

Bob H. Nabours, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Nabours of Cameron now with the Canadian army will soon be married, he announced in a letter to his parents here this week.

The letter was written on March 11 and has been censored and when it reached Cameron it had been cut into 3 parts.

The bride will be Yvette Trempe of Ste Agathe De Monte.

Bob H. left Cameron 2 years ago, one of few men at that early stage of the war situation to volunteer his services and there being no adequate place open to him because of his training in radio, he enlisted with the Canadians.

Under war conditions it isn't possible to state where Bob H. is located or what he is doing. Mr. and Mrs. Nabours called him over telephone and talked with him recently. Many friends here hope to see Bob H. and his bride when they visit here but this may be a long way off due to war conditions.

OVER THERE—AND OVER HERE

Slowly the casualty notifications are coming in. Here in a tenant farmer's home, yonder in the workingman's simple cottage, and again in the banker's more pretentious residence, the words are read through the blurring tears: "Killed in action in his country's service." The price of blood is being paid on the embattled land and the war-vexed sea.

Meanwhile, calculating men in Washington are weighing the strength of this clique against the might of that, and wondering whether it is better to vote with the one and explain to the other, or to understake by subterfuge or indirection to stay in the good graces of both.

Out where the bullets bite and death rides on wings, desperate, powder-smeared men dare without flinching and die for the sake of the sacred heritage handed down to them and to us from the beginnings of the liberties in ancient time. Out there is no haggling with honor. Out there is no bargaining with glory. Out there is no counting of gains. Out there men die.

Shall we stand idly or sit camly and measure duty by the clock or fight out right for cost plus 10 per cent? Shall we give our country only what is of profit to our craft, to our calling or to our bank account? Shall we jockey for position and advantage—and let them die?

You know the answer. Read it in the beating of your own heart. Read it in the burning thrill that runs even now along your own spine. This is our land. These are our lads. We cannot—we dare not—we will not let them die for the lack of anything within our power. God helping us, we will do our uttermost.—Dallas News.

SPRING COMES BACK

They say the world is upside down,
But I will desagree;
The rose will bloom again this year,
And leaves will clothe each tree,
And fields of grass turn green once more
When wet by gentle rain
These things will come to pass for us
When spring comes back again.

It matters not that cannons roar
And war's hot flaming breath
Ignites a world gone mad with greed,
Unsheathes the sword of death
This is the work of men, not God,
Of men who deal in pain,
And though they kill and maim and wreck,
Spring will come back again.

Aline Hudson and Reed Rogers Are Married In Port Arthur; Groom Reporting to Navy

Aline Hudson's marriage to Reed Rogers Tuesday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. H. H. Hudson, on Fifth Avenue was performed by Dr. R. E. Day, pastor of the First Baptist church, at a beautiful and impressive ceremony. The rites were read before an improvised altar in front of the fireplace where white gladioli, carnations, calla lilies and stock formed a lovely background. Stately white tapers graced the mantel.

Tebow Cone was best man.

In making his announcement Mr. Stedman issued the following statement:

"I will not be a candidate for School Trustee. I have served 8 years on the Board and I feel that we have any number of good citizens who could serve in this place to share the burden and responsibility. It has been a pleasure and a priviledge to serve the people and it gave me opportunity to learn much about the administration of a modern school system. I am deeply grateful to the people for the honors of serving on the board, but I feel that due to present business conditions and extraoridnary demand on my time that I should be free to devote more time to my business.'

Gertrude Michalka who has been employed with the Camp-Baskin Insurance firm in recent months, left today for Washington, D. C., to accept a Civil Service position. Friends in Cameron regret losing her, but hope she is successful in her new field of work.

POWER COMPANY HERE SELLS $5,344 BONDS

Sales of $273,326.42 worth of U. S. Defense Bonds and Stampe during January and February by Texas Power & Light Company employees indicate that Texans are co-operating whole-heartedly with the government to supply huge funds needed by our army, navy and marine crops, said J. Albert Young, Jr., district manager for the T. P. & L. Company, here today.

"An analysis of the $273,326.42 total reached at the end of February reveals that employees of the Company have themselves averaged purchasing at least one $25 Defense Bond each," pointed out Mr. Young.

Each Monday, all employees of the T. P. & L. Company devote two hours of working time to the sale of U. S. Defense Bonds and Stamps to citizens in their respective home towns. This plan, originated and set in operation by John W. Carpenter, president of the Company, provides that the activity be continued until the war is won or until such time as the government no longer desires the sale of bonds and stamps.

"Because it is interesting to turn these figures into items that our fighting forces actually use, consider that this sum will purchase: 19,679,904 feet and inches of barbed wire; or, 54,665 steel helmets; or, 45,554 anti-tank shells; or, 1,485 submachine guns," said Mr.. Young.

In addition to the weekly sales by employees, Defense Stamps may be purchased at the cashier's desk in any T. P. & L. Company office."

Through the efforts of the local office $5,354.70 in war bonds have been sold and the total for the week was $199.30 it was reported by Mr. Young.

German Near Hearne Arrested by Agents of Federal Government

Federal Agents have arrested a German near Hearne for possessing a short wave radio set and transmitter equipment.

The Daily Herald learned Saturday of the arrest but was unable to obtain the name of the German who has been a resident of that section for years.

It was reliably said here that the FBI agents had obtained other contraband from the home.

Recent activity around the home and the frequent parking of large style cars with out of county license plates, were said to have indicated a clearing center for German agents and enemy activties.

Monday further details will be printed including the name of the man arrested.
